POSITIVE IMPACT

IMPACT IT IS ALL AROUND YOU ...

Pound for Pound...

What impacts you? What do you impact? We have to know that people impact us each and everyday. Who impacts your life who makes you think about the big things? Who just makes you life and glad that you are alive? Impact comes in many different ways, from thoughts, laughter, good decisions, and bad decisions. This week we are asking you to give some thought of the people that impact you. How they impact and why they have the ability to impact you. Granted this is not something that we think about every day, but it is something that is worth thinking about. Check out what the bible has to say about people who impact you. Proverbs 13:20 Become wise by walking with the wise; hang out with fools and watch your life fall to pieces. The people around us impact our lives greatly! We need to see that! The people that we hang around can build up our lives or tear us down. Wise people will make you wise and foolish people will cause your life to fall into pieces. So who impacts you?... Now lets talk about the people that you impact? Who are they, and are you impacting them in a good way or a foolish way? Look around yourself who do you hang out with and who hangs out with you. Do you impact the people around you? Did you know that if you applied God's word in your life you would have impact on the people that you hang with. That you really are powerful and you can change the world around you because you can have a positive impact on the people in you life. Having an impact on other people really starts with the fact that you find other people important and worth caring about. So set out to be a positive impact and care about the people around you. The people who impact your life for good care about you...

Living Extreme means...

How can you be an extreme impactful person? Well let me ask you this. How many young people do you hang out with? I mean you are in middle school, do you hang out with or have any contact with elementary school children? Cause you can have a ton of impact on the younger generation. Little kids will automatically look up to you because you are older. It is a great responsibility to have an impact on someone, especially if they are younger than you. In your school you can become a buddy and get involved with kids that are in elementary school. You can get involved with the children's program at the church, and you could be a rock star during Vacation Bible School. Learning to have a positive impact on the younger generation is a great way to start having impact on the other people around you. Make it a point to make an impact on the people around you! It is awesome and when you think about it you will be able to list off the people who have made an impact on you!

Would your rather...?

...be embarressed in front of friends
or in front of strangers?

...have no values
or no friends?

...be a teacher or
a student?

CHARACTER

What is your character? Does your character impact people in a positive way? Or does it impact people in a negative way? Think of the people who impact you, how would you describe their character? If you asked someone to describe your character what would they say? How do you define your character? It has been said that your character is who you are when no one else is around.

Impact

Think About it...

(Being Impacted and being an impact)

Every one of us is impacted by people in our life. There is no way to live life and not be impacted by others. When you think about it you can determine who impacts you for good and who impacts you for bad. The goal is to be influenced by the people who impact us for good and cause us to be better. Being pushed is a good thing.

It comes down to the question of who do you want to be? We all have an idea about who we want to be but the question is will you become that person without working towards the goal of being that person? Or do you need support and encouragement to become that person. The people who impact you are the encouragement and support that you need. So look to them and see that they are helping you become the person that you want to become. Impact means that after you have been with them you have been changed, there is something different about who you are because of the affect that they have on you.

So as we are all impacted by others we have to know that we have impact on people around us. Who do you impact? Think again about the person that you want to become. What better way to become that person, than to impact others around you. When you seek people to impact you are investing in that person. You are becoming the person that you want to be. You are putting action to the process of becoming the person that you want to be.

We are always growing and changing in our lives that is why it is very important to know who we want to become. So that as we are changing and growing we know that we are headed in the right direction. What direction are you heading? Are you heading in the direction that will lead you to become the person that you want to be?

You have to think about these things, and process the life that you long to have. It is a journey not a random action. So start charting your journey and set your goals high!

DIG IN

Proverbs 13:20 Become wise by walking with the wise; hang out with fools and watch your life fall to pieces.

Finish this Sentence:

(Fill in the blank... How would you finish this sentence?)

The Person who has the most impact on my life is...

*How much time do you spend with this person?

*How has that person impacted you?

*Who do you impact in life?
